

CPA MONEY WORK SHOP

DAY THREE WORKBOOK

An Important And Heartfelt Letter from Praise

---

Dear Final-Day Finisher,

I don't take this moment lightly.

You've shown up. You've stayed through Day 1, Day 2... and now Day 3.

That tells me something powerful about you: you're ready for more.

Not just motivation. Not just hype. But real systems. Real income. Real change.

I remember when I first discovered CPA marketing. I didn't have money. I didn't have the tools.

But I had one thing that became everything — a decision to try.

And that one decision... turned into a system.

A system that changed my life.

Day 3 is your own turning point.

Today, it's not about watching passively. It's about creating offers that move people.

Offers so good, they say: "Please, send me your link."

If you've ever doubted yourself... if you've ever felt like money was for "other people"...

I want you to hear me clearly: you belong in this room.

You are worthy of building a life that makes others whisper "lucky" —

Even though you and I will know it was consistency, clarity, and courage.

I'm so proud of you. I really am.

Now, let's finish strong.

Let's build your money-printing system.

Let's write the story you've been dreaming of for years.

With belief in your journey,

Praise Akinlami
